DECISION FOR JUDGE CABLE YALE'S STROKE IS SLOW

HANDED DOWN IN THE SUPERIOR COURT YESTKIRDAY.

fest Case Decided by Judge Prentice-Two Injunctions Dissolved by Judge Hotchkiss-Other Civil and Criminal Cases Do

In the superior court, civil side, late yesterday Judge Prentice handed down a decision in the suit brought by the trustees of the supreme lodge, N. E. O. P., against Abbie E. Neil, to determine whether the sum of $2,000 insurance should be paid to Mrs. Nell or to Judge Julius C. Cable. The case was tried some time ago and Judge Prentice re served decision. In the opinion handed down yesterday he finds that the money should be paid to Judge Cable. HAMDEN SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

In the common pleas court yesterday Judge Hotchkiss dissolved the in-junction issued on the application of Edward Davis of Hamden to restrain the selectmen of Hamden from merging the thirteen school districts of Hamden into one. The injunction was dissolved owing to the fact that the legislature has decided that the action of the school district meeting instructing the selectmen to merge the districts was perfectly legal. THE DUCROSS FISH BOAT. Judge Hotchkiss also dissolved another injunction in the city court yesterday afternoon. A temporary injunction was granted Tuesday on the application of the New Haven Electric company restraining Charles Ducross from anchoring his fish boat in Mill river near the Grand avenue bridge, on the ground that Ducross is obstructing the river. Judge Hotchkiss after a brief hearing yesterday dissolved the injunction.

BONDS FORFEITED. The common pleas court, criminal side, yesterday adjourned until next Tuesday. Two cases were set down for trial yesterday, but in both the bonds were forfeited. James Malone of Nicoll street, convicted in the city court of violating the Sunday liquor law, on May 5 forfeited his bond of $150, furnished by Dennis Keane. William H. Wooding of Hamden, charged with breach of the peace against William A. Thomas, also forfelted his bonds of $150 given by Henry Hodan. A HAMDEN ESTATE. In the probate court yesterday Judge Cleaveland appointed Lyman E. Munson and Walter W. Woodruff commissioners on the insolvent estate of Jared Atwater of Hamden, and James K. Blake and George A. Tyler commissioners on the estate of Moses Schoenberger

RINGLER BREWERY. In accordance with a decree issued by Judge Prentice in the superior court, Attorney William A. Wright, as trustee, will sell the Ringler & Co. property, located at the corner of Chapel and East streets, July 26 next.

It will be remembered that some six r eight weeks ago it was announced that the Quinniplac Brewing company had made arrangements for the pur chase of the business of the property It appears that there are three mort gages on the property, but that Ringles & Co. of New York own the equity and part of one of the mortgages. The decree to sell is the result of a suit brought to forclose in 1894, which has een pending since.

RED'S EIGHT DID RETTER WORK IN THE PRACTICE PULL YESTERDAY.

Both Crews Show That They Are in Fine Condition-On the Morning Pull Has vard Made Better Time Than Did the Wearers of the Blue-The Fight Will be a Hot One. New London, June 19 .- Yale and Harvard have done a great deal of hard work on the Thames to-day, showing that both are in fine condition. The conditions of wind and water were favorable to practice and the crews spent much time in rowing, both for speed and for improvement of their stroke. At morning practice the crews went over the course and Harvard is claimed by timers along the course to have made the four miles in less than twentythree minutes. The time credited to Harvard is faster than that given t

On the lower half of the course to night Harvard covered two miles unde leven minutes, but it is doubtful i that pace could be continued through four miles. Harvard did not attemp to continue it, but stopped and Watson instructed them from the launch. Yale rowed her best time on the upper course to-night when she struck a fast gait and rowed far up the river.

Harvard's work of the past two days has greatly improved the crew's form and the speed of the boat, for it did the course to-day in faster time than has before been shown. All indications point to a well contested race next week and to fast time under ordinary conditions. Harvard is rowing a stroke much like that of Yale and rowing better every day.

The freshmen had trials with both the 'Varsity crews to-day, but were
